Re: Maximum Limit Increase

The Rhode Island Joint Reinsurance Association (Association) announces a revision to its maximum limit at one location under the Dwelling Policy Program. The maximum limit at one location means a combined limit for real and personal property consisting of and contained in a single building regardless of the number of named insureds and policies.

Effective immediately, the Association has increased the total maximum limit at one location for the Dwelling Policy Program to $750,000 on new business and $1,000,000 at renewal. This does not include Coverage L- Personal Liability, which has a maximum limit of $500,000, and Coverage M - Medical Payments, which has a maximum limit of $5,000.

The Association believes that the increase in coverage limits will enable Producers and the insurance buying public to more adequately insure their property.
